

CLIENT STORIES

All my life, I felt guilty. As a result, I thought I had to pretend to be whatever others wanted me to be. After my MEM counselling session, I felt light and free and all my guilt feelings were gone. I regained the lovely feeling of innocence. Before my session I kept my body covered. Now, I wear what I like. I am not inhibited in any way. The Mace Energy Method is the best thing I have ever done. I am free to be me now.

I don't remember if I ever felt this way before – at least with the intensity that I am feeling right now. I love who I am and I love my life. I wouldn't want to be anyone else, and I wouldn't want to have anyone else's life. I love me! Thank you!

One session of the Mace Method achieved what a long list of antipsychotic and antidepressant drugs could not. I Now sleep nightmare-free. I once said I would sell my soul for one good night of sleep. I don't have to sell anything now. I will be eternally grateful. Thank you to John's Mace Energy Method.

Thanks for the great phone session. I came face to face with my ex-partner this week. Usually, I am very upset and it lasts for a few days. This time, I could hardly believe it. The meeting had absolutely no effect on me. I feel so much stronger now. Thanks again.

I have tried everything from psychology, acupuncture, kinesiology and hypnotism to ease my anxiety. After my session with you, I felt more confident and calm within. A lot of my anxiety was removed and I feel I can cope with any stressful situation over which I would previously panic. I also notice that my physical health and well-being has improved a great deal.
